

5

clockwise from top, a dining room see more use
of garden studios
and singly popular
and impressive new

Time for change

Mark the beginning of tomorrow's leap into British Summer Time in fine style with one of these decorative wall clocks, says Vicky Willan

Saturday, March 27, 2010 telegraph.co.uk/property

The Daily Telegraph

need much light),
to help down noise
levels (as you'll hear). Because of this, basements
and bedrooms unless they have the garden.
Things to look for when buying and
renting will soon be common. Specialist deal with damp
some research
likely problems
type.
basement
in houses, which are where food and other things, and in homes, which are "as normal"
are limited.
It isn't usually regulations will be exits and ceiling
be from around

Vintage charm

Keep track of the time while you garden with this period-style distressed-metal clock. Roger Lascelles Outdoor Clock, £45, John Lewis; 08456 049 049, www.johnlewis.com

Figure it out

With its quirky numbers exploding off your wall, this metal clock (available in silver or black) allows you to

Square deal